Welcome to HAEMATOCON 2019

Dear Colleagues

It is a great pleasure and honor to announce that the Department of Hematology, AIIMS, New Delhi, will be hosting the 60th Annual conference of Indian Society of Hematology and Blood Transfusion (HAEMATOCON 2019). This diamond jubilee event shall be held at the Taj Palace, New Delhi, India from 7th-10th, November 2019. Various clinical and laboratory workshops will be held on 7th November 2019 at different hospitals in Delhi/NCR.

There has been a significant progress in Haematology, both in clinical and laboratory fields, over the last decade. The scientific program has been designed to include diagnostic as well as therapeutic haematology, and will attract clinical haematologists, haemato-pathologists, medical oncologists, pathologists, paediatricians as well as physicians managing such disorders. We also expect a good participation from other South Asian countries as well. Renowned national and international faculty in the field of Haematology, Haemato-oncology and Stem cell transplant will share their views and deliver lectures on the current state of the art practices.

The conference is also an opportunity to meet colleagues, build consensus and forge new avenues of collaboration. Additional opportunities will also be available to interact with the experts during the period of this conference. We request you to encourage your colleagues, residents, fellows and scientists with interest in haematology, to attend this meeting.

We look forward to welcoming you to this conference.

Yours sincerely

Dr. Manoranjan Mahapatra

About Venue

Taj Palace

The luxurious Taj Palace, New Delhi, is spread out over six acres of lush gardens in the heart of India's capital city. It is an oasis of calm while still being right in the middle of the city's action.

At Taj Palace there's business and more. Located in close proximity to the protected greens of Delhi offering a breath-taking view, Taj Palace holds a prominent place in the city's prestigious Palace. Close to the seat of the Government, Delhi's business district, the commercial hub of Gurgaon and the Domestic & International airport, the hotel offers modern business facilities seamlessly infused with epitomizing elements of exquisite Indian art.

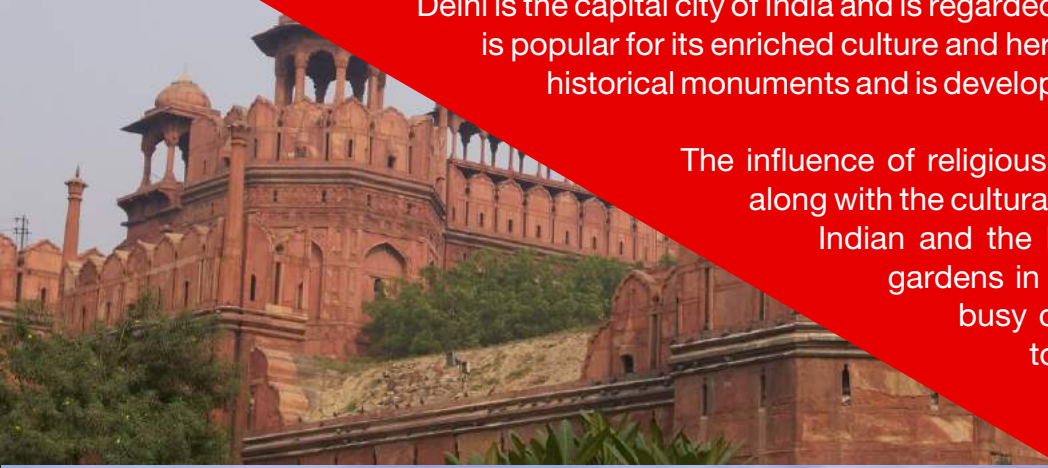

The décor is inspired by Mughal architecture and is seamlessly infused with state-of-the-art and modern conferencing facilities. If you are looking to unwind, signature therapies drawn from ancient Indian traditions are available at the soothing Jiva Spa. Other facilities include a state-of-the-art fitness centre, an outdoor swimming pool, yoga classes, and even a nine-hole chip & putt golf green.

New Delhi

Delhi is the capital city of India and is regarded as the heart of the nation. The city is popular for its enriched culture and heritage. The city hosts some famous historical monuments and is developing with the passing of time.

The influence of religious diversity can be seen in the city along with the cultural impact of the Mughal, the ancient Indian and the British. There are many beautiful gardens in the city, away from pollution and busy city life that provide opportunities to walk leisurely in the midst of greenery.
